ClearPath Hires New Chief of Staff, Expands Development Portfolio

Washington, DC – Wednesday, February 1, 2023 – ClearPath announced the addition of Katie Prendergast as Chief of Staff to the CEO.

“We are so excited to add Katie to our growing team,” said ClearPath CEO Rich Powell. “Her operations and communications experience in the nonprofit sector, on the Hill, and in the Administration will be extremely valuable in advancing ClearPath’s mission through optimizing our internal systems and strategies.”

Katie joins ClearPath from No Labels, a nonprofit advocacy organization, where she led day-to-day operations and worked closely with Congressional and business leaders across the aisle.

She previously served as Director of the White House Management Office under former President Trump. Katie has also served in communications roles at the Small Business Administration and on the press team for Senator Bill Cassidy (R-LA).

Maggie Carroll, who was most recently Chief of Staff, has been promoted to Senior Director of Development. In this new role, Maggie will lead ClearPath’s development strategy and philanthropic engagement.
