

CLEARPATH

ClearPath Adds to Government Affairs Team

Washington, DC – Tuesday, November 1, 2022 – ClearPath announced Mallory Shaevsky, former legislative staff for Rep. Jaime Herrera Beutler (R-WA), has joined as a Government Affairs Fellow. Shaevsky will support ClearPath’s educational activities with Capitol Hill to continue building policymaker champions for conservative clean energy.

“We are thrilled to add Mallory to the Government Affairs team,” said Senior Director for Government Affairs Colleen Moss. “She brings legislative experience and perspective on conservative clean energy policy from her time serving on Capitol Hill that will be extremely valuable as our team continues to grow.”

Shaevsky is a current Master of Arts candidate in American Government at Georgetown University and holds Bachelor of Arts degrees in Political Science and Environmental Science from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Shaevsky’s experience also includes work on the House Energy and Commerce Committee, at the Environmental Protection Agency, and on House and Senate campaigns.

MEDIA CONTACT

Emily Johnson
emily@clearpath.org
(678) 761-1864

ABOUT CLEARPATH

ClearPath 501(c)(3) was established by businessman Jay Faison in 2014. ClearPath’s mission is to develop and advance policies that accelerate breakthrough innovations that reduce emissions in the energy and industrial sectors. To advance that mission, we develop cutting-edge policy solutions on clean energy and industrial innovation. An entrepreneurial, strategic nonprofit, ClearPath 501(c)(3) collaborates with public and private sector stakeholders on innovations in nuclear energy, carbon capture, hydropower, natural gas, geothermal, energy storage, and heavy industry to enable private-sector deployment of critical technologies. Learn more at clearpath.org. Follow us on Twitter: @powellrich, @ClearPathAction