ClearPath Managing Director of Government Affairs Voted President of Women's Energy Resource Council

Washington, DC – Friday, January 26, 2024 – ClearPath congratulates Colleen Moss for being elected as President of the Women's Energy Resource Council (WERC) Board of Directors.

WERC, launched in 2010, is a DC-based nonprofit that promotes the exchange of ideas and perspectives on energy policy among women energy professionals from both the public and private sectors.

“ClearPath is proud to have Colleen leading an organization dedicated to both bolstering energy conversations and elevating the involvement of women in energy policy,” said Rich Powell, Chief Executive Officer, ClearPath. “Bipartisanship is a hallmark of our mission here at ClearPath and Colleen will make a tremendous impact to WERC as President, expanding the platform for women to convene and discuss federal energy policies.”

Moss joined WERC's Board in 2020, then served as Treasurer and Vice President.

Colleen is a Managing Director of Industrial Policy and Advocacy at ClearPath, where she is a senior member of the government affairs team working with the U.S. House and Senate while also managing the industrial policy portfolio. She joined ClearPath from Duke Energy, where she worked on tax, energy, environment and labor issues to help deliver a cleaner energy future. Moss also worked for the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA) and Senator Roy Blunt (R-MO).

ClearPath is a sponsor of WERC and works with the organization to engage with policymakers and staff while supporting the advancement of women who are focused on energy policy. Learn more about WERC here.
